accredited professional coach

To receive APC credits, professional members must accurately fill out APC attendance forms with the seminar/course number, their name, presenter's name, and they will have the ability to rate the seminar/course. The form must then be turned in at the end of the seminar/course. The forms will be available as members arrive at seminars or courses and must be turned in as members leave. If members arrive late or leave early, then they will not receive credit for attending.
